MCM will make all efforts to only recommend and/or solicit investments that in your best interest. Please be aware that the investment views or strategies may not be suitable for all investors and are subject to investment risks. Investors may get back less than they invested, and past performance is not a reliable indicator of future results. Asset allocation does not guarantee a profit or protect against loss. You are urged to consider carefully whether the services, products, asset classes (e.g. equities, fixed income, alternative investments, commodities, etc.) or strategies discussed are consistent and in your best interest based on your needs and objectives. You must also consider the objectives, risks, charges, and expenses associated with an investment service, product or strategy prior to making an investment decision. Please note that all investment in securities involve risk, and there is no guarantee that particular investment recommended by MCM will result in profits (or avoid losses). Please note that specific products may have individual costs, risks and characteristics. As a result, while we will explain all costs and fees associated with a specific investment, please ensure that you read all relevant material and understand the risk characteristics, fees, and costs associated with implementing the given recommendations.

International investing involves a greater degree of risk and increased volatility. Changes in currency exchange rates and differences in accounting and taxation policies outside your country can increase or diminish returns. Overseas markets may not be as politically and economically stable.

Certain products and services may not be available to investors residing in certain jurisdictions or States of the United States and a conflict of interest exist where MCM receives compensation regardless of the profit or loss in the account. When this situation arises we will notify you prior to you making an investment decision.

Past performance is no guarantee of current or future results. Investment products may be subject to investment risks involving, but not limited to, possible loss of all or part of the principal invested. It is important to note the investment products discussed herein are subject to among other things, availability, change in price, market conditions, interest rate, liquidity, and credit risk. Market values can fluctuate daily due to economic and other events such as natural disasters, health crises, terrorism, conflicts and social unrest that affect markets, economies, countries, companies or governments.

Please be aware that investment products are not FDIC Insured, not bank guaranteed and may lose value.
